Update 2018-03-03

I have added solid versions of the rock formations. So now you can scale them down without having to manipulate them. Also, two new rocks are seeing daylight.

About the rocks

A week ago I uploaded a single rock formation. I have since then made 5 more. Here they are in a single package. I have also made several prints and painted them pretty. Now fill your game boards with scatter rocks.

All the rocks are mostly hollow. You can scale them up and down as you want. Some have built in support. The others doesn't need it.

I made these rocks by sculpting them by hand in blender. With the excellent rock brushes from Blender Guru: <https://www.blendermarket.com/products/the-rock-essentials>

I only have the brushes. These are not the rocks included in the big package.
